In the Fellows Initiative and in each local program throughout the United States we strive to love and exalt Jesus Christ with our heart, mind, body and soul in all areas of our lives. We desire to apply God's truth to our lives and to help others learn and apply that same truth. We stress the essential relationship between knowing, feeling, and acting on the truth—being the people Christ calls us to be. We are a people who live out our faith in community within the local church. In this context, we strive to equip and train the next generation of leaders to love the local church and to engage God's world. We are looking for recent college graduates who long to explore an all-encompassing faith, nurture a heart for the local church, and awaken a hunger to be thoughtful believers in this world—to engage the culture in a thoughtful and winsome manner. We believe in the Creation of this world, the Fall of humankind, the Redemption given to us through Christ Jesus alone and the Restoration of all things found only in Christ.
